Description

This charming estate located in Albernoa and Trindade is a rare gem that combines the best of rustic style with modern amenities. With generous square footage, the property offers an ideal space for those seeking tranquility and connection with nature, without compromising on comfort. One of the highlights is the air conditioning system installed, which provides thermal comfort in all seasons.

The external area of the estate is a true paradise for lovers of outdoor moments. With a well-equipped barbecue, the property is perfect for entertaining friends and family. The fence surrounding the estate guarantees privacy and security, allowing children and pets to play freely. Furthermore, the carport offers protection for vehicles, a practical and much-welcomed feature.

For those who value contact with nature, the presence of a well is a valuable resource, being an excellent source of water for garden maintenance or for possible agricultural projects. This estate is not just a place to live, but an invitation to a more harmonious lifestyle and closer to nature, without sacrificing modern comforts. A true refuge in the heart of Portugal, waiting for you!
