Description

Machado Santos is a new and inspiring residential development located in the heart of Montijo. With a privileged location, it offers the perfect balance between the tranquility of a suburban environment and proximity to the cosmopolitan life of Lisbon, just 25 minutes by ferry from the city center.

The project features a variety of modern apartments, ranging from elegant penthouse T0 units to T2 apartments with private patios and gardens. All units have been designed to provide comfort, functionality, and excellent value for money, ideal for those who wish to live in a central location while enjoying the charm and serenity of a riverside city.

Montijo's picturesque streets, urban parks, and local shops create a welcoming and authentic environment, perfect for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle without sacrificing urban facilities and conveniences.

Living in Montijo means enjoying a unique combination of serenity and connectivity, with ample green spaces, such as Montijo Urban Park, and easy access to the capital's cultural, leisure, and business centers.

Expected completion for the 1st semester of 2027.
