Description

Conde da Ribeira is a residential development in Alcântara, in a privileged location with views over the Tagus River.

Designed by the renowned architecture firm Saraiva + Associados, Conde da Ribeira harmoniously combines the historical tradition of the neighborhood with a modern, functional architectural approach, benefiting from the unique light that characterizes Lisbon.

Comprising two blocks in a single volume, with two underground parking levels and five residential floors. It includes 24 units, with typologies ranging from studio to 6-bedroom plus 1. The ground floor features a gymnasium and a common garden for exclusive use by residents. The top floors are reserved for five penthouses (duplex).

Conde da Ribeira is located in Junqueira, Alcântara, a cosmopolitan and safe area where tradition endures, full of points of interest that provide a vibrant and, at the same time, peaceful lifestyle. Within walking distance of Lx Factory, Doca de Santo Amaro, MAAT, Pestana Palace, green spaces, shops and a vast cultural offering, the development also benefits from proximity to renowned hospitals, such as Egas Moniz and CUF Tejo, guaranteeing comfort, convenience and quality of life.

Development designed for those seeking a family environment in Junqueira.
