Description

Conde da Ribeira is a residential development in Alcântara, in a privileged location overlooking the River Tagus.

Designed by the renowned Saraiva + Associados architecture studio, Conde da Ribeira harmoniously combines the historical tradition of the neighbourhood with a modern, functional architectural approach and benefits from the unique light that characterizes Lisbon.

It consists of two blocks in a single volume, with two underground parking floors and five residential floors. There are 24 units, ranging from T0 to T6 +1.

The first floor consists of a gym and a communal garden for the exclusive use of the apartments. The top floors are reserved for five penthouses (duplexes).

Conde da Ribeira is located in Junqueira, Alcântara - a cosmopolitan and safe area where tradition endures, full of points of interest that offer a vibrant yet peaceful lifestyle. Just a few steps from the Lx Factory, Doca de Santo Amaro, MAAT, Pestana Palace, green spaces, shops and a vast cultural offer, the development also benefits from its proximity to leading hospitals such as Egas Moniz and CUF Tejo, guaranteeing comfort, convenience and quality of life.

This development is for those looking for a family atmosphere in Junqueira.
