Description

Conde da Ribeira is a residential development in Alcântara, in a privileged location with views over the Tejo River.

Designed by the renowned architecture studio Saraiva + Associados, Conde da Ribeira harmoniously combines the historical tradition of the neighbourhood with a modern, functional architectural approach, benefiting from the unique light that characterises Lisbon.

Comprised of two blocks in a single volume, with two underground parking levels and five residential floors. It includes 24 units, with typologies ranging from T0 to T6 +1.
The ground floor consists of a gym and a common garden for exclusive use by the residents. The top floors are reserved for five penthouses (duplex).

Conde da Ribeira is located in Junqueira, in Alcântara, a cosmopolitan and safe area, where tradition endures over time, filled with points of interest that provide a vibrant yet peaceful lifestyle. Just steps away from Lx Factory, Doca de Santo Amaro, MAAT, Pestana Palace, green spaces, shops and a vast cultural offering, the development also benefits from proximity to leading hospitals, such as Egas Moniz and CUF Tejo, guaranteeing comfort, convenience and quality of life.

A development designed for those seeking a family environment in Junqueira.
