Description

We present this elegant T2 apartment in Amadora, fully renovated, combining modernity, comfort and functionality.

Located on a ground floor with excellent sun exposure, the property stands out for its exclusive access to a spacious terrace, ideal for enjoying pleasant outdoor moments.

The apartment consists of an open-plan living room and kitchen with a bespoke lighting design, creating a harmonious and integrated environment, with direct access to the private terrace.

It also features a corridor with a dedicated office area comprising two work zones, perfect for those who need a home workspace.

There are two full bathrooms with shower base and glass partition; one serves the social areas and the other is attached to one of the suites.

The bedrooms prioritize comfort, one with an integrated wardrobe and the other with a private bathroom, both of which can be used as suites, offering greater privacy.

The kitchen is fully equipped with all appliances included.

Filters ensure high-quality water throughout the house.

All types of shops, services and transport links are very close by.

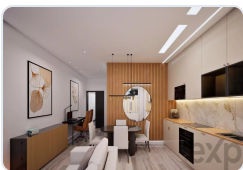

Located just 6 minutes from Colombo Shopping Centre and 15 minutes from Lisbon city centre, this apartment is an excellent option for those seeking a functional and well-located home.

Notes:

- The furniture in the photos is purely decorative; the apartment does not come furnished.
- The apartment will be delivered with the items listed on the finish map that will be sent upon each client's request.
- Warranties are provided by the suppliers of each product within their respective guarantees.
- The residence licence and energy certificate are in process.

Come see it and let yourself be enchanted!
