Description

In Campo de Ourique, a singular 2-bedroom house is hidden in the city of Lisbon, built by the famous architect Norte Júnior in 1937, inserted in an industrial complex of the wine company Abel Pereira da Fonseca: Vila Graciete.
This area is part of the tourist route for its history and its proximity to the Basílica da Estrela and the iconic Jardim da Tapada das Necessidades.

This house is currently undergoing renovation, with the possibility of choosing finishes, with delivery of the work expected for the 4th quarter of 2026.
