Description

Wake Up to the Blue of the Atlantic on the Slope of Luz Lagos Algarve

It's 6 PM on a Tuesday and the Atlantic breeze is beginning to refresh the terrace, after a long golden afternoon. You have in your hand a well-chilled glass of Alentejo white wine, while you watch the sky change from a pale blue to a deep purple tone over the cliffs of Praia da Luz. This is not just a holiday destination; it is the peaceful realization that the frenetic pace of life out there was, finally, left at the airport. This is the last opportunity to secure a home in the exclusive Encosta da Luz development, a space designed for those seeking the prestige of the Algarve without the tourist noise. The villa is in the final phase of construction, so you are buying before completion.

The Living Space: The floor-to-ceiling windows are not just windows; they are a living canvas that brings the ocean directly into your living room. The open-plan layout is spacious and airy, capturing every ray of natural light that highlights the white walls. It is a space that breathes with the seasons: cool and shaded at the peak of August, but flooded with warmth when the winter sun sets low over the water.

The Master Suite: Wake up to the rhythmic sound of the tide instead of an alarm clock. This suite is a private sanctuary where the air smells faintly of sea breeze and wild thyme. Step directly from bed onto the terrace for that first morning stretch, feeling the warmth of Portuguese stone under your feet before the rest of the house wakes up.

The Outdoor Sanctuary: The saltwater pool is the heart of the home, a shimmering turquoise-blue rectangle that mirrors the sky. Beside it, the shaded dining area was made for long, relaxed lunches that inevitably turn into conversations through the evening. It is a low-maintenance, high-impact garden, giving you more time to live life instead of managing it.

The Neighbourhood
You are exactly where you need to be. A gentle 12-minute walk takes you to the soft sands of Praia da Luz for a morning swim or a coffee at one of the beachfront terraces. If you have energy, the world-class Boavista Golf courses are a 5-minute drive away, and the vibrant and historic energy of Lagos, with its cobbled streets and hidden wine bars, is just 10 minutes away.

If you are ready to stop scrolling and start waking up to this view, let's have a coffee and talk about how to make this a reality.
