Area	270,74 m2	Business type	sale

Description

Experience the perfect combination of traditional Portuguese lifestyle and modern potential with this beautiful property in Silves. With an area of 273 m², this fully furnished house offers a unique opportunity to own a sanctuary of peace just minutes away from the doors of the medieval city. The interiors have been tastefully decorated to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere, featuring eight well-lit rooms, including three spacious bedrooms. At the heart of the house, a cozy fireplace in the living room provides the ideal setting for relaxation during cooler evenings, making it a perfect retreat for both families and guests.

The property is strategically positioned to offer the best of both worlds: the feeling of secluded rural living combined with easy access to local amenities. Although the house is adjacent to a neighboring property, the layout and orientation ensure that living here is a markedly private and quiet experience. You can enjoy the benefit of having friendly and peaceful neighbors while maintaining a true sense of independence. The outdoor space is a particular highlight, featuring a dedicated garden, barbecue area and a pizza oven, perfect for hosting summer gatherings. Beyond the immediate garden, the property boasts fantastic rustic land that extends away from the road and into open fields, providing a serene countryside landscape setting uninterrupted.

This location serves as an excellent starting point for the most iconic landmarks of the Algarve. Historic downtown Silves is only minutes away, offering a rich cultural tapestry, while the nearest beaches and the region's stunning dams are a short fifteen to twenty minute drive away. In terms of access and logistics, the property is conveniently located approximately forty-five minutes from Faro Airport and about two hours from Lisbon Airport. Whether you are looking for a ready-to-move-in home or a space for small renovations to make truly yours, this charming residence offers a rare opportunity to enjoy authentic Portuguese life in a setting of complete privacy.
