Description

This equestrian property extends across 7.1 hectares within a protected natural park, just minutes from the Atlantic coast and the Algarve border. Offering privacy, natural beauty and generous facilities, the property includes two well-equipped residences with six bedrooms, additional guest cabins and a separate countryside house - all with views over the pool and undulating rural landscape.

Professionally equipped for equestrian use, the property features 9 stables, 14 paddocks, three training arenas and an 18 m covered walkway, making it ideal for tourism, livery or competition. With abundant water supply and complete irrigation, this versatile property presents a rare opportunity for both private owners and investors seeking a fully established equestrian center in one of Portugal's most sought-after rural regions.
