Off-grid concept
Just a few meters from the ocean

In an era when luxury is often mass-produced, true exclusivity lies in what remains untouched.

We present a rare opportunity: a small 1965 house with annex, situated on a 168 m² plot right on the first line of sea, in the heart of the Southwest Alentejo and Costa Vicentina Natural Park, right next to Canal Beach, between two of Portugal's most legendary surf spots.

The property is ready for a complete remodeling of the existing space, with a solid and legal foundation to create a modern and sustainable coastal retreat. In a region where new construction is strictly limited, this is a rare asset on one of Portugal's best-preserved coastlines.
