Description

Located in the picturesque village of Fuseta, this charming semi-detached house offers comfort and functionality. With an area of 100 m², the property is ready to inhabit and features tastefully selected furniture that complements each space. The house is ideal for those seeking a tranquil retreat close to the sea, combining modern design and comfort.

The house comprises two spacious bedrooms, ensuring space and privacy. The living and dining areas are well-lit thanks to double-glazed windows, which provide excellent energy efficiency and acoustic insulation. The quality finishes reflect an investment conceived for well-being.

Future owners will also be able to enjoy the proximity to the beautiful beaches of the region and the traditional local culture. In Fuseta you will find the serenity of the Algarve, with easy access to services, commerce and leisure. This is a unique opportunity to acquire a special property, where every detail has been carefully planned.
