Description

Located in the tranquil village of Vale do Peso, near Crato and Portalegre, this fully renovated three-bedroom house offers authentic countryside living in the Alentejo with complete comfort and privacy.

Set on 4,250 m² of fully enclosed land, the main residence features high-quality modern finishes throughout. The layout includes a bright kitchen with granite countertops, leading to an adjoining living/dining room with a traditional fireplace, built-in bread oven and direct access to the garden.

The house features double-glazed windows and complete insulation throughout the property. All three bedrooms have updated private bathrooms, complemented by a separate guest WC. Air conditioning installation is currently underway.

Exterior and Outbuildings

Private Pool: A new pool is currently under construction in the garden area.

Garden and Orchard: Mature and productive trees, including orange, lemon, olive and medlar, supported by an irrigation system fed by a private well (mains water is connected to the house).

Garage/Annex: A large building accessible from the garden, fully registered, offering ideal potential for a workshop, creative studio or additional storage.

Location and Surroundings
Set near the scenic Serra de São Mamede Natural Park, the property is a short drive from the historic towns of Marvão, Castelo de Vide and Portalegre, offering essential services, daily markets and traditional cafés. The Spanish border and Badajoz are just over an hour away.

A ready-to-move-in house offering space, privacy and authentic character in Upper Alentejo. Contact us today to schedule a private viewing.
