Description

A peaceful countryside retreat with exceptional potential near Moncarapacho and Fuseta.

Situated in an elevated position, this charming hilltop ruin enjoys stunning panoramic views over the surrounding interior towards the sea. Surrounded by nature and tranquil rural landscapes, it offers a rare opportunity to create a private retreat in the Algarve in an idyllic setting.

The property is conveniently located near Moncarapacho and the traditional fishing village of Fuseta, famous for its beautiful beach, boat trips to the islands and ferry connections to the idyllic Armona Island. The lively town of Olhão is also within reach, offering a wide choice of restaurants, cafés, shops, markets and ferry services to the nearby islands of Armona, Culatra and Farol.

With its elevated position, beautiful surroundings and extensive views of the valley and sea, the ruin offers an exceptional setting for a renovation project or a peaceful holiday home, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Despite its tranquil rural setting, the property offers excellent accessibility and convenient proximity to a wide range of amenities. Supermarkets, schools, medical services, local markets, cafés and restaurants are all a short drive away.

The area is known for its excellent culinary choice, from authentic traditional Algarve cuisine to internationally renowned restaurants. Golf enthusiasts are also well positioned, with a magnificent selection of renowned Algarve golf resorts within easy driving distance.
