Description

117 m² on the 4th floor, with a corner position that opens the apartment to different exposures. The numerous windows keep the spaces naturally bright and from one side, they reveal the view of Seixal Bay.

The apartment was completely remodeled in July 2025 in a comprehensive intervention, maintaining the wooden flooring, which was restored and is today one of the elements that gives it a unique personality.

And the areas make a difference. The 117 m² translate into three truly spacious bedrooms and a living area where the sitting and dining zones coexist without competing for space. One of the bedrooms extends further onto the glazed balcony.

The kitchen complements the complete remodeling of the house, with current lines, plenty of storage, generous countertop and separate pantry.

On the 4th floor, in addition to the light and greater opening to the surroundings, the house has a view of Seixal Bay. All of this in a building with elevator.
