Description

A well-maintained estate is presented, featuring a recently renovated villa, versatile outdoor spaces and various possibilities for use. The property combines potential for event organization, a significant area of land for cultivation and complementary resources that reinforce its appeal.

At the entrance of the estate there is a spacious area with great potential for event organization. This space can be separated from the rest of the property, allowing autonomous use.
Parking, space for multiple vehicles.
Garden, garden area integrated into the events space.
Bar/counter, support for beverage service and guest reception.
Terrace, space for cocktails and dining, with an unobstructed view.
Sanitary facilities, available in the events area.
Kitchen, existing area

With two floors, the villa has undergone recent renovation works using high-quality materials. Abundant natural light, spacious areas and the organization of spaces contribute to comfortable and functional use.
Floor 0, corresponds to the social area of the villa.
Floor 1, corresponds to the more private area, with bedrooms and office.
Materials and equipment, solid wood flooring, Estremoz marble, thermal windows, air conditioning and solar panels.
Organization, full utilization of available space and ample storage.

The exterior of the villa features elements that complement the living experience of the property and provide different possibilities for use.
Barbecue area, outdoor space for dining and socializing.
Small swimming pool, integrated into the villa's outdoor area.
Garden, green area that completes the outdoor space.

The estate includes a large area of land for cultivation, with a considerable size. This space adds potential to the property and allows different possibilities for agricultural use, according to the interests of the future owner.

Among the complementary resources of the property, the existence of a well stands out, associated with the large cultivation area.
Well, resource existing on the estate.
