Description

Excellent bifamily villa, comprising two independent apartments: a 3-bedroom on the ground floor with two bathrooms, and a 2-bedroom on the first floor with one bathroom. The property also features a second floor with attic and terrace, from where you can enjoy an unobstructed view.

The villa stands out for its generous areas and harmonious distribution of spaces, offering an excellent foundation for a renovation project that enhances its character and preserves traditional elements, such as typical azulejo tiles, which give it authenticity and personality.

Externally, it benefits from a very generous area, currently featuring several fruit trees and numerous possibilities for development, whether to create a garden, leisure area or a personalized outdoor space to your taste.

Given its configuration and privileged location in Ferragudo, one of the most sought-after villages in the Algarve, this property represents an excellent opportunity for large families, two families wishing to live close while maintaining their independence, friends looking to invest together or investors seeking a property with appreciation potential.

A property full of possibilities, where traditional Algarve charm combines with the potential to create a truly unique space.
